

Totah Festival & Indian Market POSTER CONTEST 2022

You are cordially invited to submit your original artwork for the 2022 Totah Festival & Indian Market Poster Contest. The competition is open to Native American Art of all types of media including 3-dimensional pieces. (e.g. sculpture, wood carving, rugs, silver work, etc.) The contest winner will receive a cash award of $500.00

Artwork will be reviewed by a panel of judges representing the Totah Festival Foundation. The judges will consider the impact of your work, the appropriateness of the subject matter, as it relates to the Festival, and how well the artwork can be photographed and reproduced as a poster, as well as other promotional products.

CONTEST GUIDELINES/RULES

- // A participant may submit up to (3) pieces of artwork.
- // Artwork must be owned by the artist.
- // Entry must be submitted without any lettering unless it is incorporated into the artwork. The printer will set lettering and font additions to the selected poster.

For more information please see the Official 2022 Totah Festival & Indian Market booklet.

Artwork must be hand delivered to the Farmington Museum beginning July 11 to August 5, 2022. Mailed entries will not be accepted.
